Tohokushinsha to Make G-STAR 2026 Debut, Expanding Partnerships Across Asia's Gaming Market

Exhibition Dates：November 19 (Thu)–21 (Sat), 2026
Venue：BEXCO - Busan, South Korea

TOHOKUSHINSHA FILM CORPORATION (TFC; Head Office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; President & CEO, Representative Director: Keiichi Kosaka) will make its debut at one of Korea's largest gaming events, G-STAR 2026, taking place at Busan, South Korea, from November 19 (Thu) to 22 (Sun), 2026. TFC will exhibit during the first three days of the event, designated as Business Days (B2B), from November 19 (Thu) through November 21 (Sat).

With more than 60 years of experience and expertise in audio production since its founding, TFC has provided game audio production and voice casting for numerous globally acclaimed titles, including FINAL FANTASY XVI, Monster Hunter Rise, SILENT HILL f, and DEATH STRANDING 2: ON THE BEACH, as well as Stellar Blade, a game developed in South Korea. In fiscal year 2025 alone, the company handled approximately 590 game-related audio productions and completed a cumulative total of 27,216 voice actor castings, making it one of Japan's leading providers of game audio production and voice casting services while continuing to expand its business.

Making its debut at G-STAR 2026, TFC will have a team of experienced specialists at the forefront of game audio production and voice casting on hand to showcase its latest work, as well as to engage in one-on-one consultations to discuss specific project needs and answer questions about audio localization and voice casting for the Japanese and the global release of titles originating in South Korea and across Asia.

In recent years, as "full-voice" games have become more prevalent and demand for high-quality game audio continues to grow, TFC aims to deliver the ultimate gaming experience to players around the world through the power of "sound". To help achieve this goal, TFC looks forward to engaging in active discussions and presenting tailored proposals to build new partnerships across the Asian market.
All attendees are warmly invited to visit TFC's booth and meet the team.

Message from Koji Okano, Executive Officer and Head of the Dubbing & Subtitling Business Division:

With Japan as our home market, we recognize South Korea, China, and other Asian markets as key strategic markets and are actively building and expanding our international network across the gaming and entertainment industries. Our business with South Korean companies has continued to grow year by year, making South Korea an increasingly important market as we seek to further develop our established network and create new business opportunities.
To further these efforts and strengthen our ties with South Korea's gaming and entertainment industries, we will make our debut at G-STAR 2026. Through our participation, we aim to showcase our expertise in the content business, along with our diverse range of services and solutions tailored to a wide variety of needs. We also seek to deepen relationships with existing clients and create opportunities for collaboration with new partners.
Moving forward, we will continue to expand our network and strengthen our presence across Asia, fostering long-term relationships in markets throughout the region to support the continued growth of our global business.
